

John Divola

Monday, October 4, 2010

5299
Empty Lots in San Francisco = +/- 250
acres of Land =  x 96
Union
Squares

"A group of people took some corporate land, owned by the University of California, that was a parking lot and turned it into a park and then said, 'We're using the land better than you used it; it's ours'" John Bardacke on People's Park

Photo 7a: Hall of Fame; Chicago; 1992

Photo 7b: Piecing Spot; Cambridge; 1992

Photo 7c: Piecing Spot; New York City; 1992

Monday, October 4, 2010

