

About Me

- Long-time San Francisco resident
- Artist and mother of 6
- Lived in public housing all my life; benefitted from stable housing
- Participated in the Housing Affordability Strategies
- One of 11 members of HEARD for the Housing Element 2022 Update

About HEARD

- Resident ambassadors representing a range of race, ethnicity, socioeconomic statuses, age, abilities, household types, and tenure in San Francisco; with a special focus on previously underrepresented communities
- Goals:
 - provide meaningful input, perspectives, and opinions
 - vet ideas, strategies, and tools
 - get involved with housing policies and encourage others to add their voices and be HEARD

About HEARD: Phase 1 Contribution

- How did this resident ambassador group help advance racial and social equity through this first phase of outreach?
- What were the successes and lessons learned?
- Moving forward, what would it look like?