

Bay Area Council Employer Network: Return to Transit Tracking Poll

The following survey results reflect information on Bay Area employers' return to work plans to assist transit agencies in planning for the future. All information collected is anonymous.

Kastle Back to Work Barometer - Weekly Occupancy Report

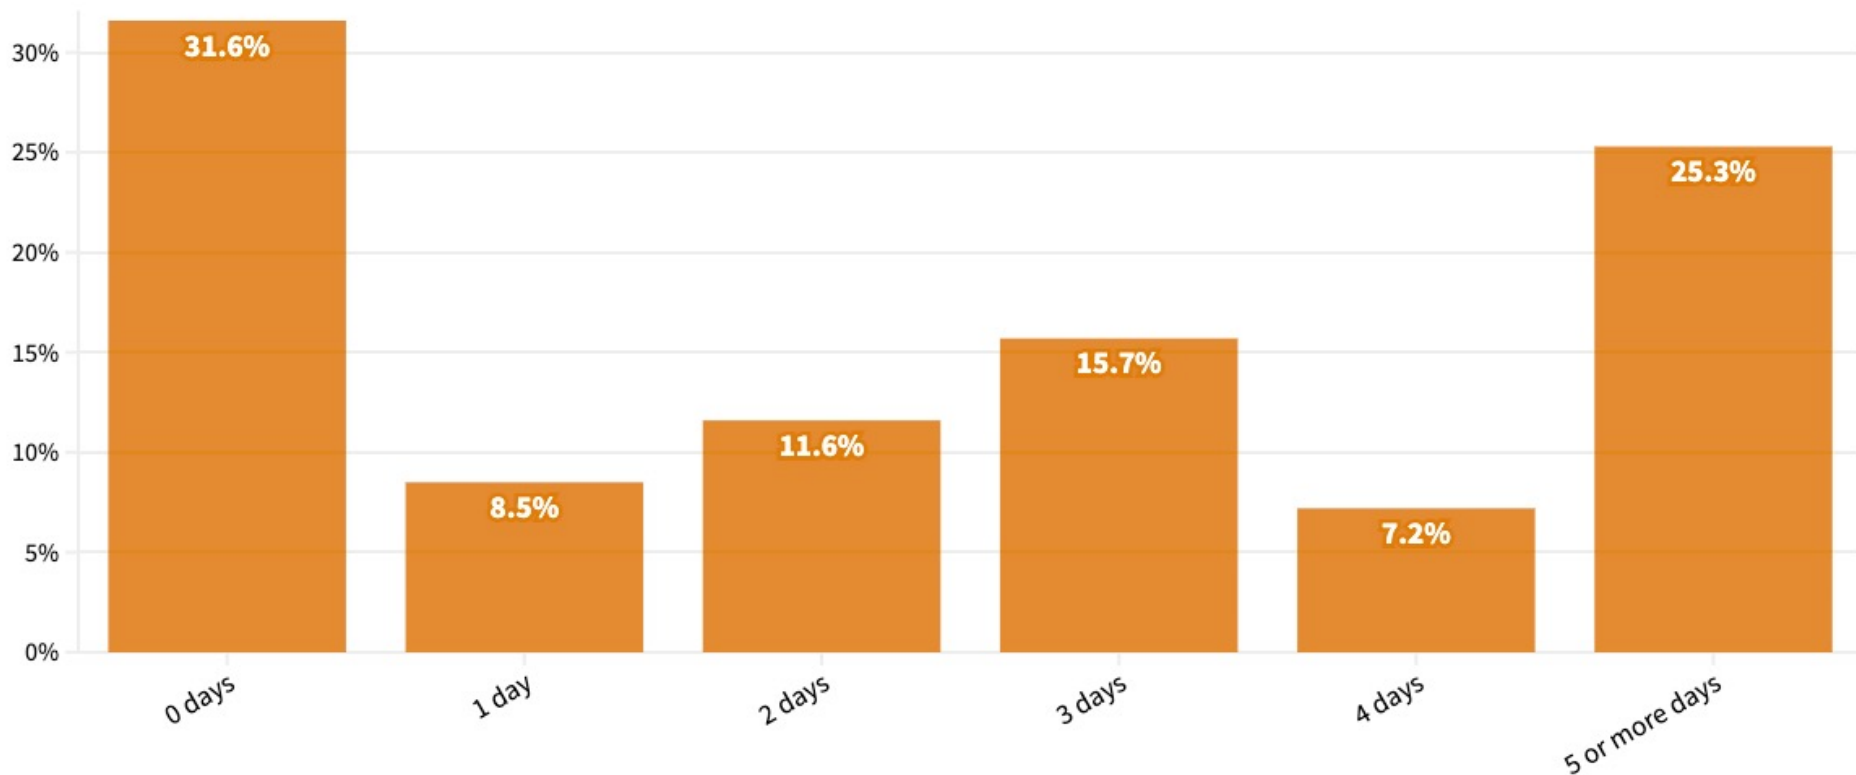

OCCUPANCY OVER TIME - MARCH 3, 2020 TO NOVEMBER 3, 2021

Right now, what is your best estimate at the frequency your Bay Area workforce comes to the workplace each week?

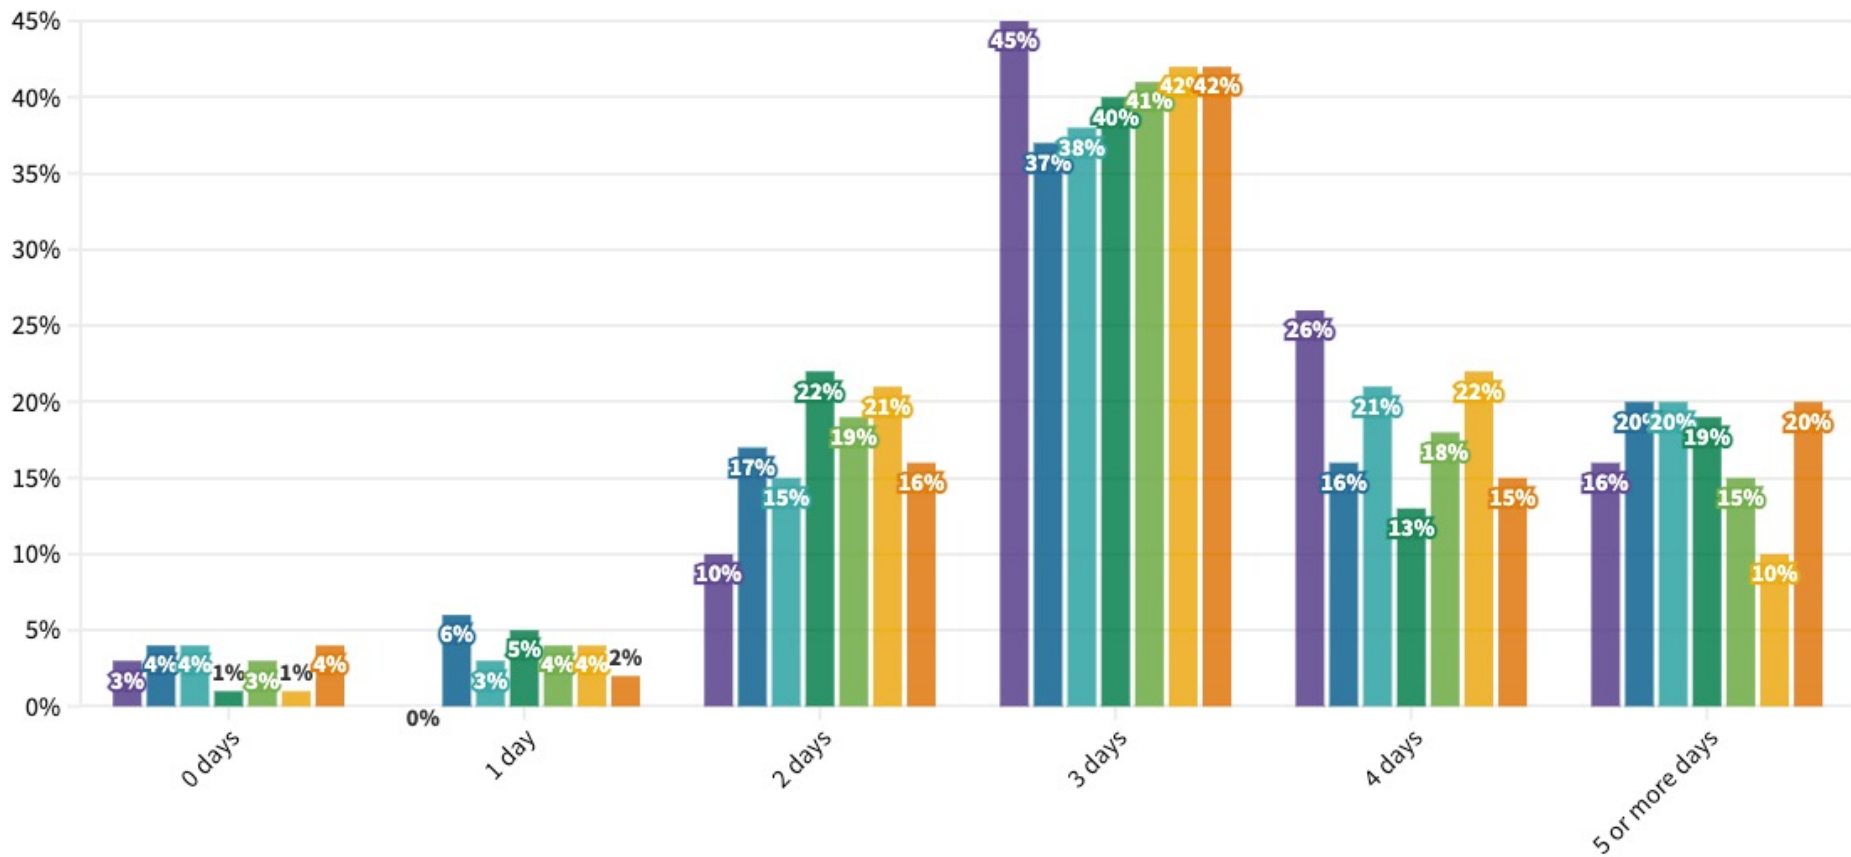

Percentages are averaged across responses.

October

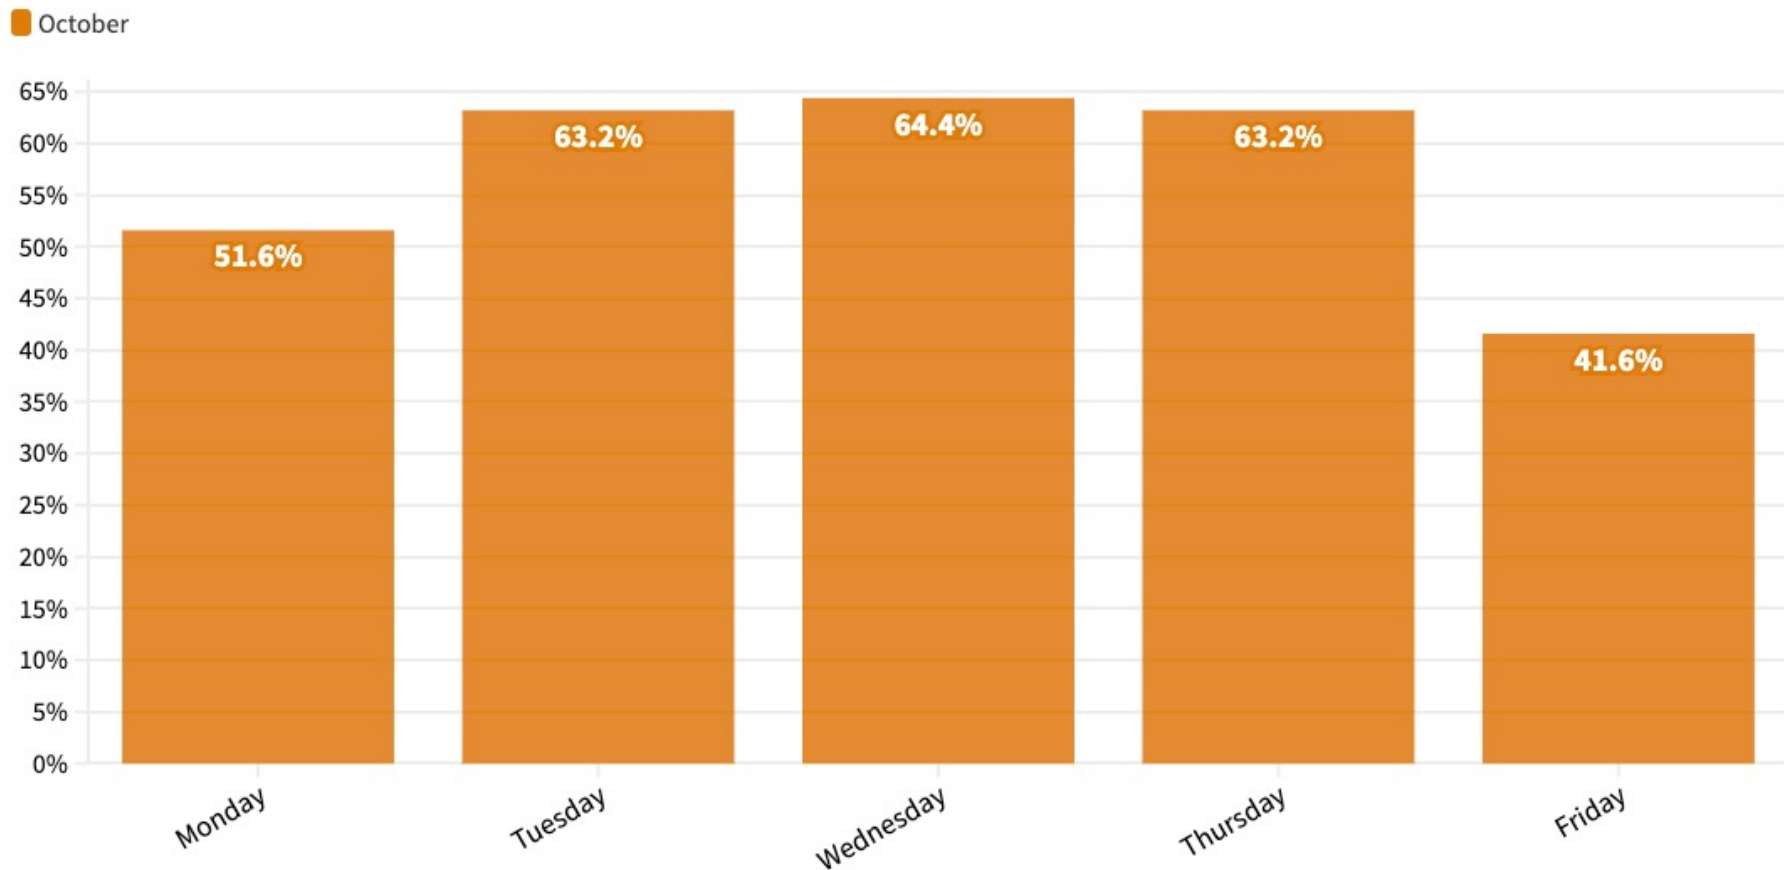

Once the pandemic is behind us, how many days per week do you expect your typical employee will come to the workplace?

Legend: April (Purple), May (Blue), June (Teal), July (Dark Green), August (Light Green), September (Yellow), October (Orange)

Once the pandemic is behind us, what is your best guess at the percent of your workforce that will come to the workplace each weekday?

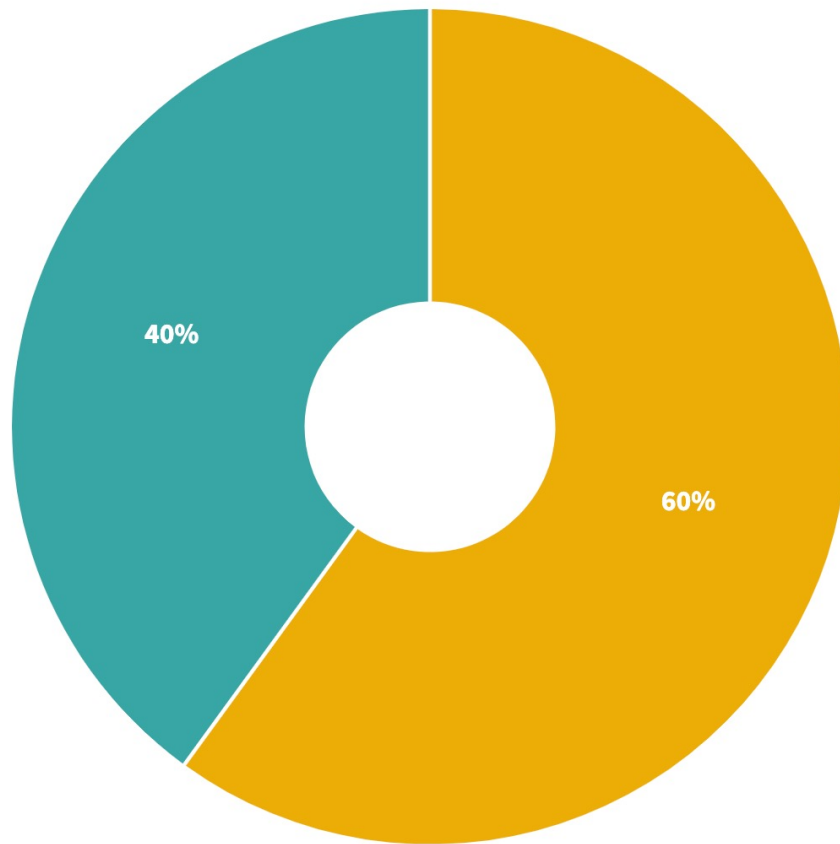

Percentages are averaged across responses.

Post-pandemic, do you anticipate that most of your employees will come to the workplace for traditional ~9-5 hours?

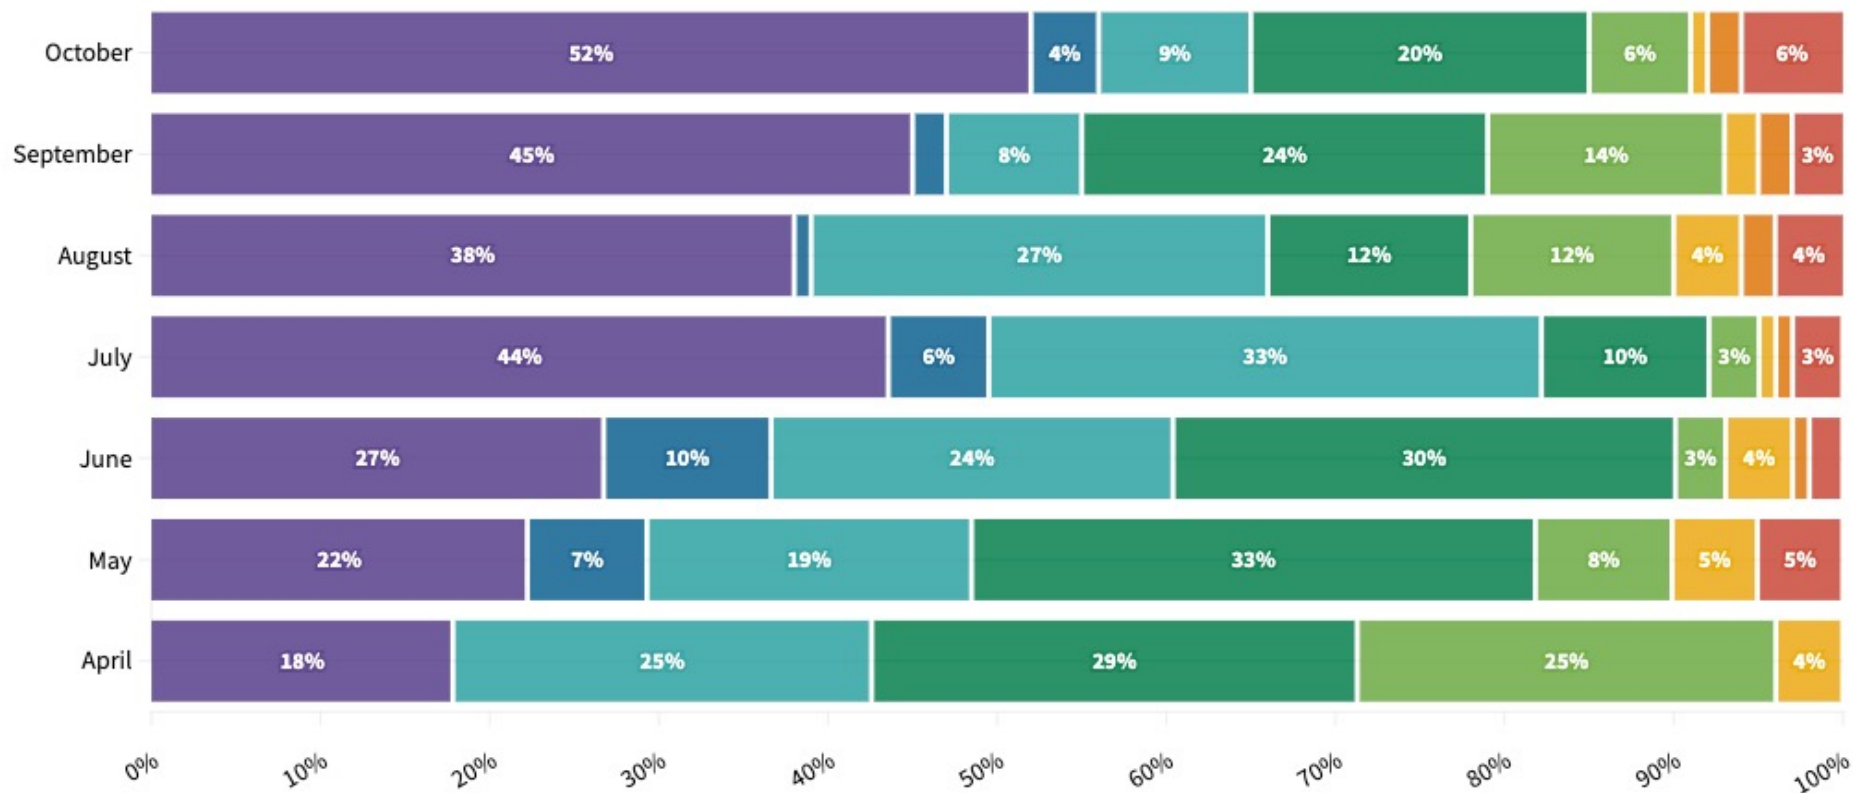

We anticipate that most of our employees will come to the workplace for:

■ Flexible/variable hours ■ Traditional work hours

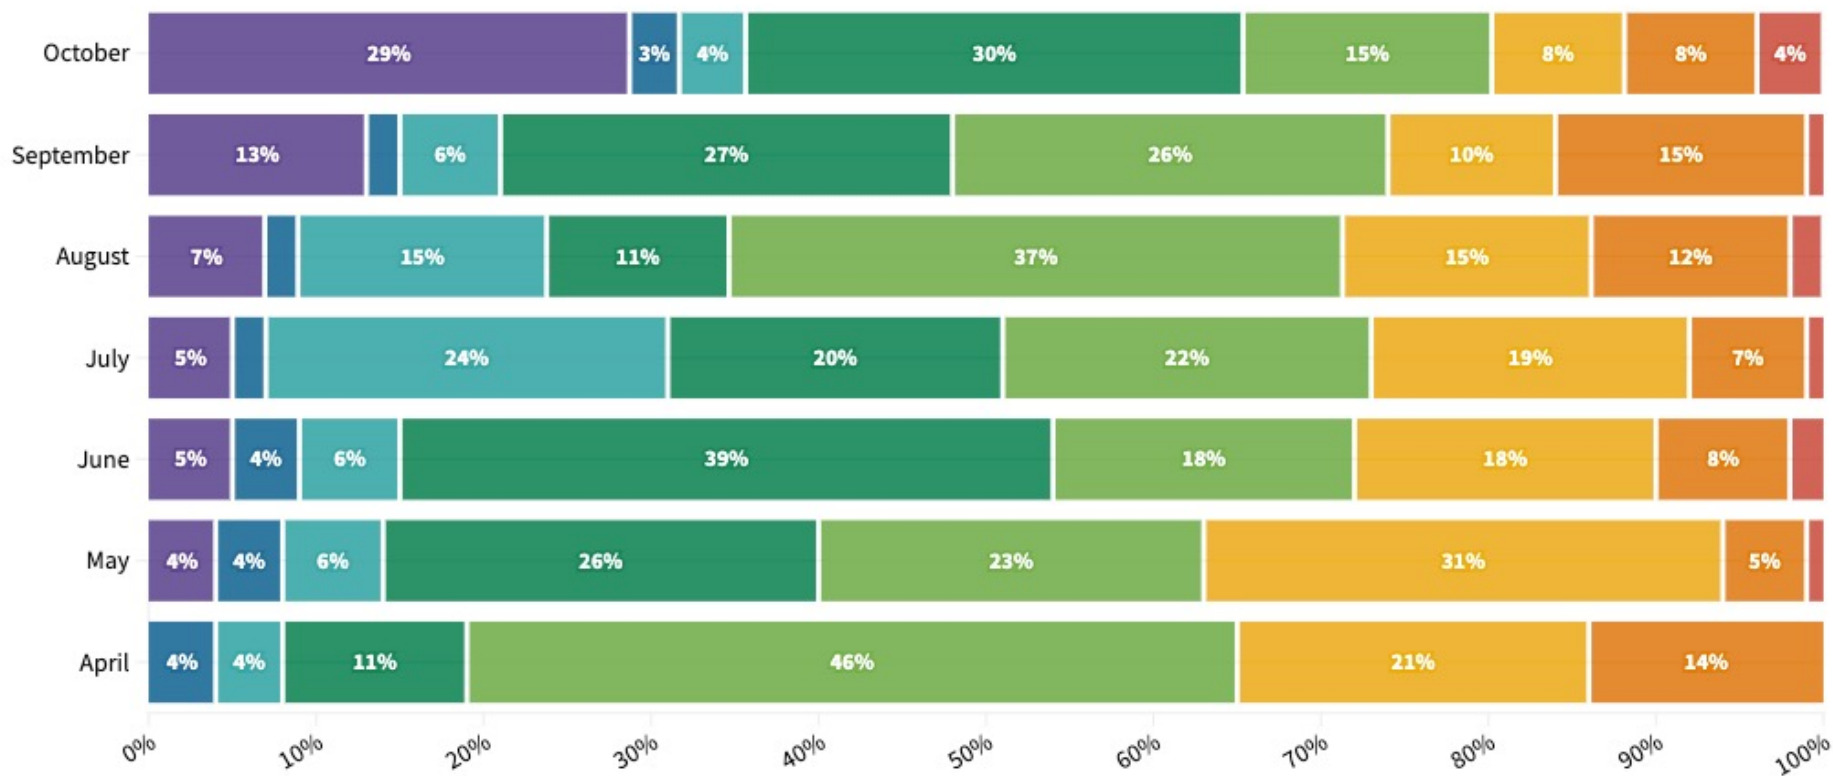

What is your best guess at when you will start bringing non-essential employees back to the workplace?

■ We have already begun bringing non-essential employees back ■ Within a month ■ 1-2 months ■ 3-4 months ■ 5-6 months ■ 7-11 months ■ At least one year
■ We do not plan on bringing non-essential employees back to the workplace

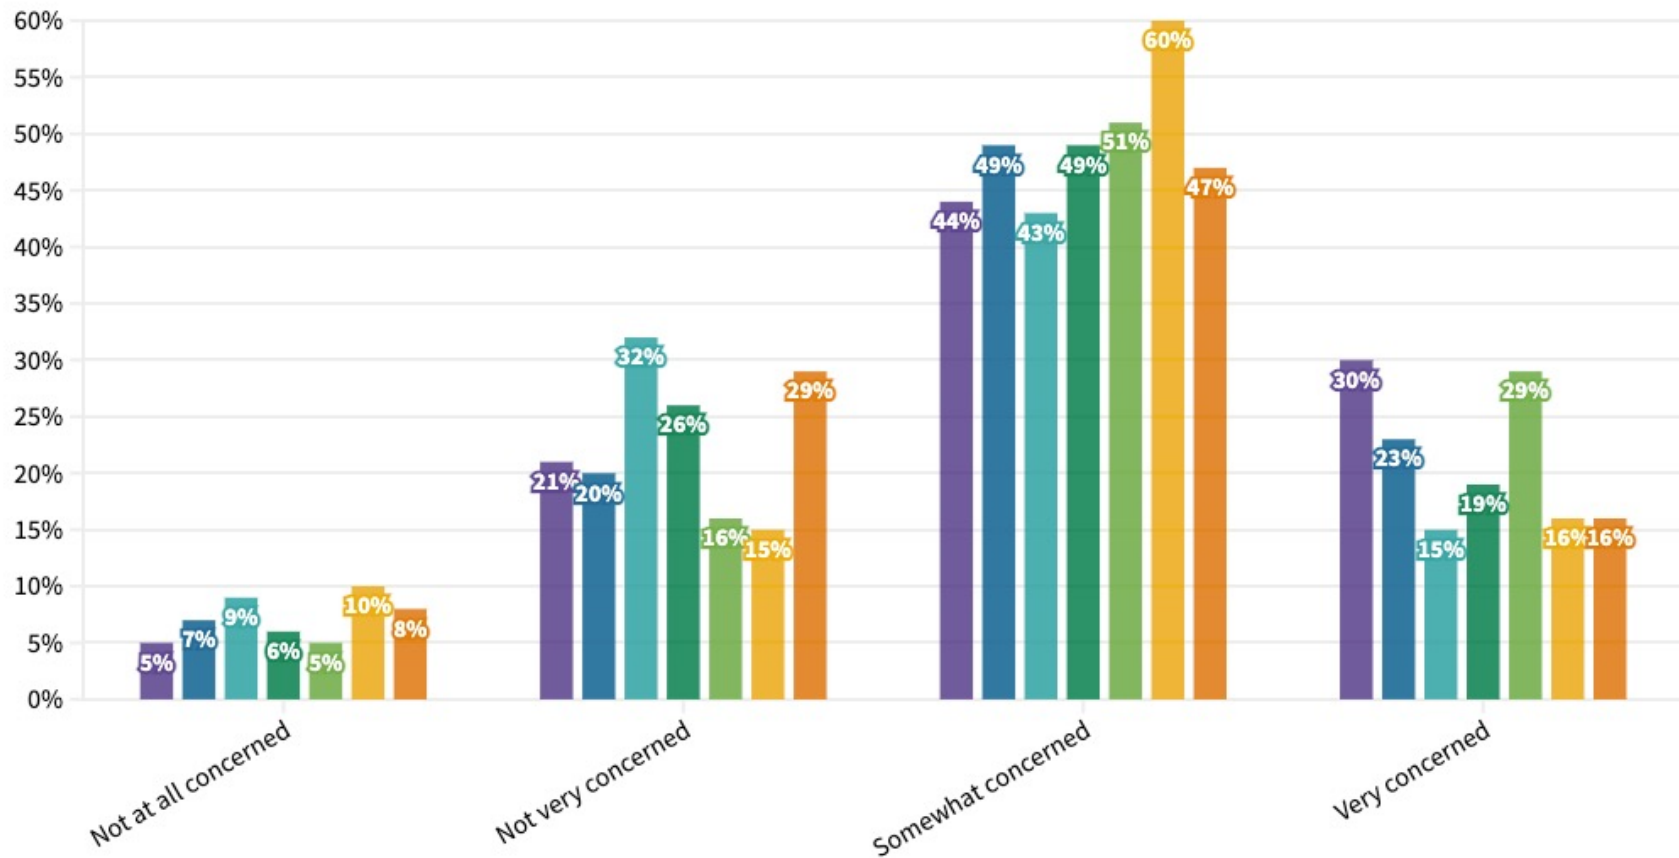

From today, when do you think your new long-term “normal” will be fully implemented in your organization? (i.e., all employees who you would like to return to the workplace have returned with consistency)

■ Not applicable/we are already operating under our new normal
 ■ Within one month
 ■ 1-2 months
 ■ 3-4 months
 ■ 5-6 months
 ■ 7-11 months
 ■ At least one year
 ■ We do not plan on bringing employees back to the workplace

Thinking about your employees returning to public transit, as of right now, how concerned are you about COVID safety on transit?

April May June July August September October

- Want to participate? Please reach out to me – glitvak@bayareacouncil.org