00:20:03 Tonia Randell: Hello all, Tonia Randell, Administrative Director, Marie Harrison Community Foundation for Environmental Justice. Bayview/Hunters Point resident and activist/organizer.

00:20:31 Laura Feinstein (SPUR): Hi Tonia, thanks for joining us

00:22:02 Tim Casey: What about raising the ground up? Can you accommodate rising groundwater by adding more soil?

00:22:59 Heike Kaiser: Can we learn something from the Dutch/the Netherlands?

00:23:32 Jackson Nutt-Beers / SPUR: We want to hear from you! As the digital discourse continues, please submit any burning questions you may have using the Q&A function at the bottom of your screen!

00:43:41 Jackson Nutt-Beers / SPUR: Have a question for our panelists? Submit your questions using the Q&A function!

00:44:41 Elena Lazaretnik: rather than having the "responsibility baton" getting pushed back and forth between the Navy and the City, are there any reasonable ways that the responsibility can be jointly split? Pointing fingers at "who's at fault" doesn't make enough headway for fixing the issue, especially with the waterfront real estate going up in the neighboring areas ($$$)

00:55:17 Sara Miles: Government Audit and Oversight Committee, SF Board of Supervisors.

00:58:00 Tonia Randell: DPH stopped tracking the health of D10 many years ago because of the high rates of cancer and lung disease. Tracking health through DPH would show the human cost of inaction.

01:00:23 Tonia Randell: I am a community member

01:02:36 Tonia Randell: District 10

01:04:23 Tonia Randell: Thank you
