Rinihmu Pulte’irekne
Cultural Conservation Easement in Joaquin Miller Park

SPUR Digital Discourse, 2/2/2023

Corrina Gould, Confederated Villages of Lisjan and Sogorea Te Land Trust
Brendan Moriarty, Real Property Asset Manager, City of Oakland
Darin Ranelletti, former Policy Director for Housing Security, Oakland Mayor’s Office
History of the Land: Three Waves of Genocide

The Mission System
Indigenous Slavery and forced labor

The Rancheria System
Indentured and low wage labor

Us Imperialism
Mass Extermination
Rendering by Chris Walker in collaboration with Sogorea Te'
Bay Area Land Back Highlights

- Fee title acquisition of Richardson Ranch by the Kashia Band of Pomo Indians to create the Kashia Coastal Reserve in Sonoma County (2016)
- Conveyance of Reserved Interest Cultural Conservation Easement from City of Oakland to Sogorea Te Land Trust in Oakland (2022)
- Conveyance of a Cultural Conservation Easement from the Midpeninsula Regional Open Space District to the Amah Mutsen Tribal Band at Mt Umunhum in San Mateo County (2017)
- Conveyance of Cultural and Subsistence Access Easement from Save the Redwoods League to Kashia Band of Pomo Indians at Stewarts Point in Sonoma County (2018)