00:20:55 Jessica Peyton / SPUR Public Programs: Thanks for joining us everyone. Place your thoughts here in the chat, and make sure you're thinking of questions and putting them in the Q&A section at the bottom of the screen.

00:39:17 Sherry Zhu / SPUR Public Programs: Feel free to add your comments and reactions here in the chat! If you have questions for the panelists, make sure to submit them through the Q&A panel so we can get to them later!

01:00:34 Tess Dornfeld: The Twin Cities Boulevard initiative is also working toward replacing I94 through Minneapolis and St. Paul, with awareness of the risk that it could lead to a new displacement of the community, as with Reconnect Rondo <https://www.twincitiesboulevard.org/>

01:01:13 Guy Baldwin: Related: The 1989 earthquake destroyed miles of interstates in San Francisco and Oakland, and it was decided not to replace them. Many profound consequences. I don't know this story well enough to relate it, but I'd be interested to hear how much that decision making rhymes with what's happening now.

01:01:46 susana montana: The 1989 Loma Prieta earthquake in San Francisco rendered 3 highway links through town unusable and about a decade later, they were removed.

01:02:41 Tess Dornfeld: CNU has a collection on highway transformation projects in urban areas <https://www.cnu.org/our-projects/highways-boulevards>
